- 12.1 During the Company's engagement with the Client under this agreement and for each Non-Solicitation Period thereafter, the Client must not, without the Company's prior written consent (which the Company may withhold or delay in its absolute discretion), directly or indirectly:
- (a) (non-solicitation suppliers) interfere with or disrupt, or attempt to interfere with or disrupt, any relationship, whether contractual or otherwise, between the Company and any of the Company's suppliers, distributors or joint venture partners, or identified prospective suppliers, distributors or joint venture partners; or
 - (b) (non-solicitation of staff) induce, encourage or solicit any of the Company's officers, employees, contractors or agents to cease their employment, engagement or agency with the Company.
- 12.2 The Client acknowledges and agrees that:
- (a) the restraints in clause 12.1 constitute several separate covenants and restraints consisting of each of clauses 12.1(a) and (b) combined with each separate Non-Solicitation Period severally;
 - (b) each of those separate covenants and restraints is a fair and reasonable restraint of trade that goes no further than is reasonably necessary to protect the Company's goodwill and business;
 - (c) the Client has received substantial and valuable consideration for each of those separate covenants and restraints, including its receipt of the Services; and
 - (d) breach by the Client of any of those separate covenants and restraints would be unfair and calculated to damage the Company's goodwill and business and would lead to substantial loss to the Company.
- 12.3 The parties intend the covenants and restraints under clauses 12.1 to operate to the maximum extent. If any of those separate covenants and restraints would, in the absence of this clause 12.3, be void as unreasonable for the protection of the interests of the Company but would not be so void if any part of the wording in this clause 12 or Schedule 2 was deleted or amended, the separate covenants and restraints will apply with the minimum modifications necessary to make them effective.
